Question often asked: Do I pay sufficient Income Tax to cover all my charitable donations?

Answer: Whatever amount of Income Tax you pay each year, you can donate up to 4 times that amount to charity under the Gift Aid scheme. e.g. if you pay £100 of Income Tax per year, you can donate up to £400 under the Gift Aid scheme. This £400 can be donated to just one charity or spread over a number of charities.
